

How to Watch the Virtual Farm Tour to an Indiana Dairy on April 24 at 1:30 p.m. Eastern

There are two options for viewing the LIVE Virtual Farm Tour to an Indiana Dairy scheduled for Friday, April 24 at 1:30 p.m. Eastern.

- For those with Facebook accounts, the tour will be streamed on the Indiana Dairy Facebook Page.
 - A Facebook Event page will be created for this tour, where you may mark that you are “Going” or “Interested” to receive notifications/updates if they are posted.
 - A scheduled live stream for this tour will also be posted on the Indiana Dairy Facebook Page (<https://www.facebook.com/indairy/>) within a day or two of the scheduled tour. You can click to “be notified” when the stream goes live through Facebook from this post.
 - You may also simply visit the Indiana Dairy Facebook Page at 1:30 p.m. on April 24 to find/watch the tour.
- For those without Facebook accounts, the live stream will also play directly at <https://winnersdrinkmilk.com/virtual-farm-tour/>.
 - Simply visit <https://winnersdrinkmilk.com/virtual-farm-tour/> at 1:30 p.m. Eastern on April 24 to view the tour.

Tips for viewing and interacting during the trip:

- Do not try to find/watch the trip too early. Since these are live streams, there will be no video posted until we near the start of the tour. We recommend visiting the sites mentioned above about five minutes prior to the scheduled start of the tour.
- We will try to start the livestream a few minutes prior to the scheduled start time. This will give us time to make sure the feed is working and that you can see/hear us prior to the scheduled start time.
- The ability to take live questions/comments is limited to the participants on our Facebook page. We will monitor the questions coming in from Facebook and try to have our farmer answer as many as they can.

- Those without Facebook accounts tuning in from <https://winnersdrinkmilk.com/virtual-farm-tour/> will not be able to ask live questions during this trip.
